PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today is the first day of is Asian-American and Pacific Islander Heritage month. In 1992, the month of May was designated by President George H. W. Bush as Asian Pacific American Heritage Month. The annual celebration honors the many contributions and accomplishments of Asian Americans, Pacific Islander Americans, and Native Hawaiians. Hiram Fong, one of Hawaii's first two senators, became the first Asian Pacific American to serve in the U.S. Senate in 1959. Today current senators Mazie Hirono of Hawaii, Tammy Duckworth of Illinois, and Vice President Kamala Harris of California are proud Asian/Pacific Islanders proudly serving in the US government. How lucky are we to live in a diverse country that values and celebrates rich cultures that make our country great?

Chemics! Do you want to show off your ping pong skills? Do you want to play ping pong with your friends? Come to Eyeball lunches and play on Wednesday, May 3rd!

POSITIVE THINKING

Yes, You Can: You are capable of achieving anything you set your mind to. No matter how challenging your goals may be, never give up on them or yourself. Keep fighting for what you want because you can overcome any obstacle life throws your way. Never stop having confidence in your skills and abilities.

IN SPORTS ACTION

The Girls Track and Field team competed in a very competitive field with 23 teams at the Brighton Invitational. Lillian Lince led the team with a toss of 126'5 in the discus for first place. The Chemic Pride Award went to Grace Riddle who ran 4 very good distance races. Kaymarrie Spencer was awarded the Unsung Hero as she was a substitute in two relays and did a great job. Also competing well were Anna Merges, Cam Mackezzyk, Ella Riddle and Jenna Seybert. Great job ladies!
