ANNOUNCEMENTS:

If you haven't picked up your 2021 yearbook yet, stop by room 325 to get it! It is waiting for you!

Boys Swim and Dive team - we are having a meeting this Wednesday in room 140 at 2:30 to talk about our preseason schedule

The MHS Key Club is back! Our first meeting for Key Club will be next week Thursday at 2:30 in room 357. If you want to make a difference, then the MHS Key Club is for you! We are an active volunteer and leadership group that helps both our campus as well as in Midland. From organizing blood drives, to helping local kids, we pretty much cover every kind of way to help! Come talk to Mr. Yoder, Ms. Dodick, or Ms. Bank to find out more!

ALL students: The Counseling Center will begin sending emails directly to students regarding important information instead of reading them aloud in the Daily Announcements. It is important that you check your email regularly for emails coming from your counselor or the Counseling Center. These emails will include pertinent information regarding testing, scheduling, college visits, scholarships, special events, deadlines, and more. Most of this information will still be included in the Parent Friday emails as well.

CHEMIC SALUTES

Erik Lieberman - Thanks for coming to the rescue of a fellow Chemic who created a bit of a mess when she dropped a full water bottle! Instead of just walking by, Erik stopped to help clean up the small flood.

MHS Counseling Staff - Thanks for all of your work and time at the start of the year to help get schedules adjusted. It's definitely not an easy task to come up with 1300 functional schedules!

Auditions will be held for MHS Drama's fall production of Agatha Christie's Murder on the Orient Express on Thursday, and Friday, Sept. 8th and 9th at 3:30 in the Little Theatre. Auditions will consist of cold readings from the script and no preparation is necessary. Rehearsals will not be held on Fridays. Come be a part of this thrilling ghoulish story that performs days before Halloween. No prior experience is necessary and all are encouraged to attend.
