

MIDLAND HIGH SCHOOL DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS
TUESDAY MARCH 14, 2023

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Seniors: Several new scholarships just opened up including "Memorial Presbyterian Scholarship" the "Midland Business Alliance". Go to our MHS Website to check these scholarships out along with many others ... be sure to check back periodically as scholarships are continuously opening and closing.

The NAHS meeting has been moved to Tuesday, March 21. Please disregard the announcement from yesterday.

Staff and Students, The Girls' loft is closed today because of the blood drive.....and yet... There is still time to donate blood. Today in the Girls' Loft, feel free to stop by and donate a pint of blood. Seventeen years and older are welcome to donate.

Positive Thinking Announcements

Challenges: No matter what goal you set for yourself, no matter where you want to be, no matter what success looks like to you... The road to success is going to be paved with challenges and obstacles. You don't have a choice in what your challenges are. What you do have a choice of is how you will show up for them.

IN SPORTS ACTION

The MHS Combine was held Thursday March 9th. One hundred twenty-one student athletes from area schools participated. Athletes completed 7 different tests measuring speed, strength, and agility. Chemic champions in their respective weight classes were Liv Rohr, Abigail Shealy, Craig Hurst, Isaac Bowers, Matt Wenzell, and Isaiah Henderson. Runner-up finishers were Brehdyn Clemons, Ellary Laverty, Zach Buschlen, Merrick Hocking, Max Stoecker, and Evan Woodruff. Special thanks to the teachers, coaches, and students who volunteered for this event.
