PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

CHEMIC SALUTES:

Brenden Granzo - Congratulations to Brenden for being the first individual Chemic swimmer to qualify for states in the past 22 years! He had an amazing 100 m breaststroke swim over the weekend and made the state-qualifying cut time by taking nearly a second off his previous best! Then, after a short rest, Brenden joined Mitchell McMath, Jacob Hyde, and Trenton Smerdon in the 200 Medley Relay where they swam to a new school record that was set way back in 2001.

Chemic Wrestlers - Shout out to Morgan Ludwig who placed 5th and Arden Eschtruth who placed 4th in the Girls Division, & Cole Schelb who placed 7th in Division 1 this past weekend at the state individual wrestling finals. All three of these Chemics were recognized with All-State honors!

Faith Persyn - Salute going out to Faith for being recognized as Midland High's Chemistry student of the year by the American Chemical Society! This honor marks Faith as being one of the top chemistry/science students in the entire state!

Mr. Midland High - A huge thanks to everyone who was a part of bringing back this fun MHS tradition! Also, shout out to the juniors for putting on the annual prom fashion show as well!

Drew Barrie - Huge props going out to Drew for an outstanding varsity basketball career (which is not over yet!!) at MHS. Last week, Drew broke the all-time career scoring mark - a record that has stood for 40 years! Drew currently has 1019 points and he and the team will be ready to light it up some more tonight in the district semi-finals against . . . some team from across town.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

For Women's History Month, the Z Club of Midland High would like to give recognition to influential women in the world. Helen Keller lost her hearing and sight at the age of 19 months due to an illness. However, this didn't stop her from advocating for rights for people with disabilities. Throughout the 1910s she gave speeches all over the United States advocating suffrage and disability rights. Helen Keller later co-founded the American Civil Liberties Union. In her time, she was able to publish 12 books, earn a bachelor's degree and even fly a plane.

Thank you to all of the Chemics that attending Mr. Midland High last night. Over 200 people were in attendance to watch the competition between 10 outstanding Chemic contestants. Thank you also to the organizers, Bella Sullivan and Emily Northrup, in addition to the juniors that participated in the prom fashion show. Last, but not least, a shout out goes to Ms. Stearns and Mr. Mulvaney that kept us laughing as the emcees. The top three finishers were:

Taking bronze, Cal Stearns, silver went to Quinn McMath, and the 2022 Mr. Midland High is Joey Pelletier!

Congratulations to the Midland High Chorus and Meistersingers! Both choirs competed at MSVMA choral festival this week. Chorus received a division 2 rating and the Meistersingers earned a division 1 rating and were only two points short of a perfect score!

The annual Saginaw Valley Teacher of the Year Award will be presented this Spring. One teacher from each high school in the Saginaw Valley League will receive the award. Your Midland High teachers who have received this award are Mrs. Monique Albright, Ms. Becky King, Ms. Amy Rankin, Ms. Katy Stearns, and Mr.

Jeff Yoder. If you would like to nominate a teacher for the award. Please complete a nomination form and submit it by Friday, March 11, 2022. Nomination forms can be found in the main office, media center, counseling center, and on the MPS website.

Seniors! The senior portrait proofs are hanging in Eyeball Alley near the main office - make sure to stop by to double check your name spelling and picture. This is what it will look like in the yearbook - unless you contact us with any issues. See Editor Paige North or stop by room 325 with any corrections. And be sure to order your yearbook before the price goes up! Right now, it's $65, but on March 15 it will be $70. Order today at www.yearbookforever.com

Students: We have over 85 overdue library books! It's time once again to check under your beds, in your cars, lockers and classrooms to locate these missing books and either renew or return them to the Media Center ASAP! If the books are not returned or renewed, you may receive a fine and a hold will be placed on your report card.

Today is the last day to submit your post secrets! You can submit them by the end of the day in the book return outside of the media center. Don't forget to be creative with your notecard and to decorate it. We hope to see your secrets by the end of the day!
